That same day two of Jesus' followers were walking to the village of Emm _ us, seven miles from _ erusalem. As they walked along they were talking about everything that had happened. He asked them, "What are you discussing so inten _ ly as you walk al _ ng?" They stopped short, sa _ ness written across their faces. Then on of them, Cleo _ as, replied, "You must be the only person in Jerusalem who hasn't heard about all the things that have happened there the last few days." "What things?" Jesus asked.

"The things that happened to Jesus, the man from _ azareth," they said. "He was a prophet who did powerful mi _ acles, and he was a mighty teacher in the e _ es of God and all the people. But our _ eading priests and other rel _ gious leaders handed him over to be condemned to death, and they cr _ cified him. We had hoped he was the M _ ssiah who had come to rescue Israel. This all happened three days ago."

"Then some women from our group on his _ ollowers were at his tomb early this morning, and they came back with an ama _ ing report. They said his body was missing, and they had seen angels who told them Jesus is ali _ e! Some of our men ran out to see, and sure enough, his _ ody was gone, just as the women had said."

Then Jesus said to them, " You fooli _ h people! You find it so hard to believe all that the prophets wrote in the S _ riptures. Wasn't it clearly predicted that the Messia _ would have to suffer all these things before entering his glory?" Then Jesus took them through the _ ritings of _ oses and all the prophets, e _ plaining from all the Scriptures the things concerning himself.
